

Code of Conduct – Members and Affiliated Organisations

Effective as of 3 June 2015

1. Purpose

The purpose of Code of Conduct (code) is to describe the type of behaviour that Mountain Bike Australia (MTBA) is seeking to promote and encourage its members and supporters to adopt. MTBA has adopted this code to assist defining what is appropriate (and inappropriate) conduct. MTBA is committed to the promotion of mountain biking as a positive active and healthy lifestyle choice. This code will assist to guide this promotion and encourage all members and affiliated organisations to

2. Application

The code shall apply to all persons formally associated with mountain biking in Australia. In particular, it shall apply to:

- 2.1. Persons acting for or on behalf of MTBA.
- 2.2. Athletes, coaches, managers and support staff of MTBA whilst in Australia or travelling abroad.
- 2.3. All persons participating in MTBA sanctioned events.
- 2.4. Officials, Commissaires and support personnel assisting in or conducting MTBA events.
- 2.5. MTBA appointed delegates and employees of MTBA.

3. Key Principles

The key principles of the code of conduct are outlined below.

- 3.1. MTBA wishes to operate in an environment where people show respect for others and their property.<sup>1</sup>
- 3.2. MTBA wishes to operate in an environment that is free from harassment.<sup>2</sup>
- 3.3. MTBA wishes to operate in a non-discriminatory environment. Respect the right, dignity and worth of every human being - within the context of the activity, treat everyone equally regardless of gender, ethnic origin or religion.
- 3.4. Persons to whom this Code applies acknowledge and agree to comply with the disciplinary and grievance procedures as outlined in the Member Protection Policy.

4. Key Elements

All persons who are bound by this code shall:

- 4.1. Act in a manner that is compatible with the interests of MTBA;
- 4.2. Accord people involved in mountain biking (and cycling more generally) with the appropriate courtesy, respect and regard for their rights and obligations;
- 4.3. Treat people's property with respect and due consideration of its value;
- 4.4. Show a positive commitment to MTBA's policies, rules, procedures, guidelines and agreements;
- 4.5. Respect the law and customs of the places they visit;
- 4.6. Respect the confidentiality of information that they receive in the course of fulfilling their duties;
- 4.7. Uphold the standing and reputation of mountain biking (and cycling more generally) within Australia;
- 4.8. Not misuse provided funds or property belonging to another party; and
- 4.9. Observe and comply with the Anti Doping Rules set out in the CA Doping Policy.

<sup>1</sup> Respect is defined as consideration for another's physical and emotional wellbeing and possessions, to ensure no damage or deprivation is caused to either.

<sup>2</sup> Harassment is defined as any action directed at an individual or group that creates a hostile, intimidating or offensive environment.

5. Unacceptable Behaviour

This list provides examples of behaviour deemed to be unsuitable and not in the best interests of the sport.

- 5.9. Any form of harassment.

6. Officials Code of Ethics

The responsibility for the ethical conduct of mountain bike events rests equally with officials and participants as well as coaches, media, and spectators. The duty of an official carries with it an obligation to perform those duties with accuracy, consistency, objectivity and a high sense of integrity. To preserve and encourage confidence in the professionalism and integrity of mountain bike officiating all officials are expected to follow ethical behaviour.

MTBA officials expect that:

- 6.1. Their health and safety will be considered of paramount importance;
- 6.2. They will be treated with respect and openness;
- 6.3. They will be appointed to a level of event appropriate to their level of competence; and
- 6.4. They will have access to self-improvement opportunities.

MTBA officials will observe and adhere to the following code of ethics:

- 6.5. Place safety and welfare of the participants above all else;
- 6.6. Accept responsibility for their actions;
- 6.7. Be impartial;
- 6.8. Avoid and conflict of interest;
- 6.9. Be courteous, respectful and open to discussion and interaction;
- 6.10. Value the individual;
- 6.11. Seek continual self-improvement through study, performance appraisal and regularly updating of competencies;
